Teaching Future Leaders Introduction

“Every teacher needs to improve, not because they are not good enough, but because they can be even better.”

Dylan Wiliam

We aim to impact pupil outcomes by improving the quality of teaching and leadership through the accreditation and independent validation of high-quality professional development programmes.

We do this by providing a unique opportunity for schools and academies to transform their professional development programme by incorporating a bespoke Ofqual Regulated Qualification Framework pathway of Chartered Management Institute professional development qualifications.

Why schools are working with us

- Schools welcome the fact that the programme content and mode of delivery isn't prescriptive; schools control the content and mode of delivery that leads to each qualification
- In most cases, the programme content is designed and delivered in-house by exceptional practitioners in each school. Some schools choose to also include input from external providers; the flexibility is a key feature
- We ensure that the programme content maps to the respective qualification outcomes and provide a direct, cost-effective, route to accreditation; ensuring external and independent validation of the professional development programme
- Schools love the fact that we support professional development by providing unlimited FREE tutor support, FREE access to a leading online learning platform and FREE professional membership of the Chartered Management Institute

Professional development qualifications

Principles of Management and Leadership

The Principles of Management and Leadership qualification is awarded to outstanding teachers.

The aim is to support the development of management and leadership skills, which can immediately be used to impact learning in the classroom. The management and leadership skills can immediately be implemented by those who have operational responsibility for a defined area of activity; this qualification helps individuals develop their communication and motivational skills in order to impact operational efficiency.

Professional development qualifications

Level 7 Strategic Management and Leadership

The Level 7 Strategic Management and Leadership qualification is awarded to outstanding middle and senior leaders.

The aim is to support middle and senior leaders who seek to continuously develop their department and/or pastoral teams into high-performing teams. With a distinct focus on a values-based education approach, the qualifications support the professional development of middle and senior leaders who have the authority and personal inspiration to translate organisational strategy into effective operational performance.

The qualifications require managers to build on their strategic management and leadership skills and to focus on the requirements of implementing the organisation's strategy.

Teaching Future Leaders Endorsement...

“I highly recommend the CPD qualification routes available through TFL Education. We currently have all senior leaders at King’s Leadership Academy undertaking the Level 7 Strategic Management and Leadership qualification, which leads to ‘Chartered’ status. The qualification has allowed us to create a professional development programme bespoke to our requirements, leadership culture and philosophy.”

Dr Andrew Reay | Associate Principal | King’s Leadership Academy

“Completing Chartered Manager enabled me to genuinely reflect on my effectiveness in school and celebrate my achievements through a truly professional process. It’s an excellent tool for professional development and the support of the Chartered Management Institute’s ambassadors has been exceptional throughout. I believe this is a great partnership between the teaching profession and an internationally recognised professional organisation.”

David Cooper | Headteacher | Batley Girls’ High School
